AND ALSO CHILDREN'S DAY Will not only be for the proud show of what we honor as Children's Day of this our time.

But also to emblemize the children, who lived in the day's of the Revolution, when their Fathers were out in the field of battle, fighting for the Liberty of our country. In the days when the mother's heart ached, for the husband who met the foe upon a many a long and hard fought battle field. And when the mother's tears ran down over her cheeks from the piercing cries of her hungry child crying for bread. This CELEBRATION and CHILDREN'S DAY will be given in honor of the dead past, and the live future. When the grand Union Cry shall be heard from sea to sea, and from the rivers unto the ends of the earth. And the stars and stripes shall float over the head of all men, with equal rights to all and special privileges to none. When the innumeral voices will sing

"Glory to God on earth, peace and good will to all men for ever and ever."
